Reds Resume Shelling Of Quemoy; Americans Deny Escorting Chinese Ships

By GENE KRAMER

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chinese Communist shore batteries laid a new barrage of fire against the off-shore island of Quemoy today, ending nearly 15 days of cease-fire proclaimed by Peiping.

The Red artillery caught four Nationalist supply ships in the Quemoy beach area—three LSTs and one Navy transport.

The bombardment lasted for 2 hours and 45 minutes, then stopped, the Nationalist Defense Ministry said. There was no word as to the intensity of the barrage.

The Nationalists said they reinforced artillery on Quemoy had returned the Red fire.

Deny Red Charge

A Nationalist spokesman said no American ships were in the beach area. The Communists in ending the cease-fire had charged U.S. warships had broken the truce by escorting Nationalist supplies to Quemoy Sunday night.

The Americans flatly denied this saying they had only "conducted a small-boat operation . . . lifting Chinese Nationalist supply craft through international waters," at least 15 miles off Quemoy.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry said the Communists had resumed shelling at 4 p.m., 50 minutes after Peiping Radio had broadcast orders canceling the cease-fire. The Communists announced a week ago that their self-imposed hold-fire had been extended to midnight next Sunday.

The Nationalists said they had waited one hour after the Communists began shooting, then opened fire.

A Nationalist spokesman said the Red bombardment was not so heavy as on Aug. 23, when the off-shore war began with an intense two-hour bombardment. During that initial attack 41,000 Communist rounds were fired, killing 11 civilians and wounding 18 on Quemoy and causing more than 200 military casualties.

ORDER SOCIAL SECURITY FOR 100 OFFICIALS

Adams County apparently will have to dig up pay records for the last eight years, pay back Social Security on all earnings of tax collectors, assessors and jury commissioners since 1951 and pay interest on the payments.

Saturday the commissioners received notification from Paul C. Moomaw, executive director of the Bureau of Social Security for Public Employees, directing the payments and interest, back to 1951.

While there has been discussion and letters to the commissioners from Assemblyman Francis Worley previously concerning the matter, the Moomaw letter to Crosby N. Hartzell, chief clerk of the commissioners, was the first direct official statement that the commissioners have had concerning the matter.

"Not Excluded"

Moomaw's letter said in effect that while tax collectors, etc., were not included in the agreement signed by the county with Social Security five years ago, they were not "excluded" either.

Moomaw's letter said: "The reason you may have omitted them (tax collectors, assessors, etc.) from your original reports were due to the fact that you were under the impression that elected officials such as tax collectors, assessors, auditors and jury commissioners were part-time employees and your contract did exclude part-time services."

"However, an elected official, with respect to the services he performs for the county, is a full-time employee with respect to those services notwithstanding the fact performance of those services may only require a small portion of his personal time."

To Go Back To '51

Moomaw's letter also instructed the county to start the payments of officials holding the offices in 1951 and added that interest (Continued On Page 3)

Three Injured In Crash On Route 34

Three persons were injured when two cars collided 3 1/2 miles north of here on the Biglerville Rd. at 6:45 o'clock this morning.

State police said Harold S. Blanchard, 33, 224 York St., was driving north when he came upon another car halted on the highway. Blanchard attempted to brake and the brakes "grabbed," swerving his car across the highway into the path of a southbound auto operated by Glenn Crist, 52, Guernsey.

Red China. They included one Briton, four East Germans and the son of the Cambodian am- bassador to Peiping.

The number of crew members was not given, but the TU104 usually carries up to 10.

The Peiping broadcast gave the first details of the disaster. Moscow radio, in one of its rare announcements of air mishaps, said Saturday night that the plane went down on a regular Peiping-to-Moscow flight but did not disclose how many had been killed.

Aeroflot, the Soviet state airline, said in Moscow no further details would be disclosed until an investigation has cleared up the case.

FIVE INJURED, $2,500 DAMAGE IN AUTO CRASH

Five men were injured and two cars were demolished in an auto accident at 9:55 o'clock Sunday night seven miles south of here along the Emmitsburg Rd.

State police said the crash occurred within the parking lot at the Cities Service truck stop as drivers of both cars involved sought to swerve to avoid a crash and swerved in the same direction.

According to police, Joseph Maley, 34, Philadelphia, driving south, was passing another auto when he found Clarence L. Summers, 17, Westminster, driving north, coming over the crest of the grade at the truck stop and restaurant.

Pinned By Steering Wheel

Maley, in the northbound lane at the time, swerved to the left into the parking lot in an attempt to avoid the accident. Summers, with a car ahead of him and one beside him, swung to his right and his car also entered the parking lot and there the two autos collided.

Maley had rib injuries, an injury to the jaw and abrasions of the chest. He was pinned behind the steering wheel of his car and could not get out until extricated by Gettysburg firemen responding to the crash with both local ambulances.

Mrs. Sneeringer outlined the five aims of the family and parent education committee of the National Council. The aims are: To make parents and young people family-conscious; to preserve the best in the traditions of family integrity and family stability; to plant in the minds of youth, and even children, that marriage is a sacrament and that building a home is a worthy career for husband and wife for which intelligent preparation is necessary; to instill respect for large families and emphasize the rewards of sacrifice as against the pleasure philosophy of the day, and to lift the home to the highest level of Christian family living.

Study For Marriage

The Rev. Fr. Kane spoke on marriage and the necessary preparation for the sacrament, suggesting that the wealth of printed material available on the subject should also be made available to young people contemplating marriage. "FOLLOW THE TIDE"

Much controversy has been made . . . about the way to live . . . what way is best, what should we take . . . and how much should we give . . . so after hearing all the sides . . . I have fixed in my mind . . . the method that is best of all . . . to stand the grueling grind . . . keen observation made me see . . . I can avoid much rain . . . if I will go along with things . . . and not against the grain . . . by that I mean the righteous things . . . with them I must conform . . . for if I don't this life will be . . . a most relentless storm . . . in fact I'd go as far as to say . . . I follow with the crowd . . . because I've learned that no one hears . . . a voice alone and loud . . . although at times I disagree . . . and must swallow my pride . . . rewards are great for me and mine . . . if I follow the tide.

Charlotte A. (Leese) Markle, Paul Russell was born April 29, 1958; Sheri Ann was born August 2, 1958, and Scott Allen was born on July 18, 1958. The parents were the baptismal sponsors.

Janet Schwartz and Julia Newman reported for the Recipe committee and Ella Louise Moyer and Sally Fox reported for the Folklore committee. Jane Crone reported for the Transportation committee that a special train will be used to the roundup with a sight-seeing tour of Chicago enroute. Buttons and/or pins made from wood from trees on the Eisenhower farm were suggested as "swap items" for the roundup. The group's next meeting will be held November 8 from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. at the Girl Scout office.

If Moormaw's interpretation sticks, the county will have to pay back Social Security payments and interest on possibly more than 100 officials, including tax assessors, jury commissioners and possibly the tipstiffs, messengers, etc., of the court and possibly even election officials.

Stenographers at the commissioners' office this morning began going through the 1951 records to determine how many Social Security accounts might have to be paid and the amount of time it will take to obtain the records from the various books involved, including both the county books and the institution district books.

Check Other Counties

Hartzell made a quick survey of the other 15 seventh-class counties this morning and reached 13 of the counties. Only one, Warren, is paying Social Security on its tax collectors and auditors but did not pay for its jury commissioners. Mifflin includes jury commissioners and court officials but not tax collectors. Most covered approximately the same persons as are covered by Adams County's payments, with numerous variations along the way.

Moormaw's letter said the matter came to light when Amos Sheely, a tax collector, sought Social Security benefits and Mervin L. Rice, jury commissioner, sought Social Security.

Saturday's Games
Muhlenberg at Gettysburg, 1:30.
Lafayette at Bucknell.

Gettysburg College (3-0-1) scored its third victory of the year when it downed hard-fighting and outmanned Albright (1-2-1), 18-8, after running into unexpected resistance before 2,500 at Reading Saturday night.

Apparently looking ahead to Middle Atlantic conference battles with Muhlenberg and Lafayette on successive Saturdays, the Bullets took a long time to get rolling against the Lions. Jim Flood's fine running and the line's tough defense when deep in its own territory saved Gettysburg from being upset.

Undimmed by being the underdog, Albright received the opening kickoff and marched from its own 24 to the Gettysburg 35 before the attack stalled. Gerry Bracker and Mike Matto were the chief ground gainers for the Lions.

Coach Gene Haas' gridders drove from their own 35 to the Albright eight when a fumble on a fourth and three situation prevented a possible touchdown.

Bullets Get Break
After moving to their own 29, the Lions on a fourth and two situation sent Claude Lynch back to punt, but the snap from center sailed over his head and Gettysburg took over on the Albright 10. On the first play, Flood raced through right tackle for the touchdown as the first quarter ended. Harry Binger's placement was wide to the right.

Albright threatened in the second quarter following a loss of 16 by Gettysburg's Dick Stravolo on a pass attempt on fourth down. The Lions took over on their own 47. Gary Chapman, who replaced injured Frank Sudock, passed to Mike Varano for 13 and a first down on the Bullets 40. After two line plays gained but five, Albright sprang Bricker loose on a draw play for 21 and a first down on the 14. Chapman attempted to roll out on the next play, fumbled and Ron Frederick recovered for Gettysburg on the Bullets 23.

Eighty-Yard Drive
Midway in the third quarter, the Bullets in eleven plays drove 80 yards for their second touchdown. Gettysburg gained possession on its own 20 when Albright failed to make a first down. Flood raced around right end for six, and Davidock drove through center for nine. Flood and Stravolo moved the ball to the Gettysburg 43 from where Velton got away on a 23-yard gallop around left end.

An incomplete pass and a loss of one by Flood when he attempted to turn right end apparently stopped the drive but Flood, on the ancient Statue of Liberty play, sprinted around his left end and behind excellent blocking moved to the Albright six. In three plays Stravolo sneaked over for the touchdown in 14:10. For the first time this season, Gettysburg attempted to gain two points on the play after touchdown but a fumble stopped it.

Tukloff Sparkplug
In the final quarter, the Bullets moved 46 yards for their final score as sophomore Ron Tukloff sparked the drive and picked up half the yardage in three carries. Velton plunged over from the one in 12:05 for the score. In another attempt to get two points after touchdown, Gettysburg failed. Guard Harry Miller, Albright, realized a lineman's dream when he grabbed a Gettysburg fumble from mid-air and raced 26 yards for a score in 14:31. Chapman got the extra two points when he rolled around his left end after the Lions had been moved back on an offside penalty.

Patti Injured
Albright co-captain Bill Ballentine, 200-pound tackle, was injured midway in the third quarter and an ambulance removed him to the Reading Hospital where upon preliminary examination it was feared he had a double fracture of the left leg. Gettysburg guard "Chuck" Patti suffered a dislocated knee and will be out for the season.

Gettysburg will entertain Muhlenberg Saturday in a Middle Atlantic conference game as a feature of the Homecoming weekend.

GASHOUSE GRID GANG MAY BE "OUT OF GAS"

By DAVE DILES
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Professional football's gashouse gang may be out of gas.

In a four-week span, the Detroit Lions have gone from defending world champions to a team trying desperately to escape last place. They lost to the Baltimore Colts Sunday 40-14 and have only a tie to show in four games.

When the Lions' come-from-behind magicians rolled to the title last year in one of the wildest races in National Football League history, they drew acclaim as football's gashouse gang.

Coach George Wilson recalled after Sunday's defeat: "Someone said we used up 10 years of luck last season. It looks like he was right. In a league as tough as this, a guy doesn't have much time to enjoy the championship."

Tough Games Ahead
Five times last season Detroit came from behind, twice snatching victory from almost certain defeat. This year, the Lions have been battling in each game until almost the very last minute of play.

Wilson refuses to count his club out of the Western Division race, despite the fact his Lions are tied with Green Bay for last place. And the team must play three straight road games against Los Angeles, San Francisco and Cleveland.

"I've learned not to count anybody out in this league until it's mathematically impossible," he said. "We can have a lot to say about who wins it."

Thunderbolts Rock Rams For Easy 39-6 Triumph; Need Victory For Title

Littlestown High School's fast moving football team marched for a touchdown the first time it got its hands on the ball and went on to take an easy 39-6 decision from Kennard - Dale at Fawn Grove Saturday afternoon.

It was the fifth straight triumph for the Thunderbolts and their fourth victory without a defeat in Laurel League competition.

The Bolts will complete their league season by meeting powerful Susquehanna, 2-0 in league play, Friday night at Littlestown. A triumph would give Wib Gobrecht's outfit the league title.

It took just seven plays for Littlestown to march 67 yards for its opening TD, Karl Bankert going over from the four. Ron Crouse's placement for the point failed.

Block Ram Punt
A blocked punt gave Littlestown another score a short time later, the Bolts taking possession on the Rams' five. In two tries Wayne Garrett smashed over. Crouse's kick sailed to the left in the try for the point.

Kennard - Dale got its lone touchdown early in the second period on a 51-yard drive following a Bolt punt. Ken Heiback raced 21 yards to the 30. A five-yard penalty against Littlestown plus two tries moved the ball to the 16. Bill Rhoades lugged the ball to the 10 from where Jack Hart raced over. A poor pass from center stopped the extra point try.

Stair Recovers
Bruce Stair recovered a Ram fumble for Littlestown on the Kennard - Dale 16 to set the stage for another Littlestown tally. Crouse ran the ball four straight times, going over from the three. He placed-kicked the point to make the half-time score 19-6.

A blocked punt and an interception led to two more Bolt scores in the third stanza. Bill Bowers blocked a punt on the K-D 21. Garrett scored a little later from the 12 and Crouse booted the point.

A short time later Bankert intercepted a pass and scored from the 8. Again Crouse converted via placement.

Littlestown's reserves featured in the final touchdown production in the last quarter on a 57-yard march. Tom Sheely passed to John Strevig for 15 yards to put the ball on the 17. Bill Bowers picked up 12 yards on four tries, Strevig added 2 and then Bowers blasted over. Dave Crouse's placement was wide.

Littlestown had a 10-8 edge in first downs.

"THE THING" IS NEW ON GRID AT LAFAYETTE

EASTON, Pa. (AP) — Army's football team has the lone senior end; now Lafayette College, surprise leader of the Middle Atlantic Conference's university division, has the "The Thing."

"We call it 'The Thing' because we don't have a name for it," Jim McConlogue, making his debut this year as head coach at Lafayette, said today.

Pete Stevens, Temple coach, has a name for it, but his version is slightly unprintable. Lafayette used "The Thing" on its first play Saturday and scored a touchdown. Stevens claimed the play disgraced his team, which went down to a 35-0 defeat.

Went Like This
It took a week's practice and some acting talent on the part of the Lafayette players to pull off "The Thing" which went like this:

Bob Howard, Haddonfield, N. J., center, called the huddle five yards to the left of the football instead of the usual distance straight back of the ball. Temple lined up on the huddle, as usual. When he broke from the huddle, he pretended he didn't know where the ball was.

Wayne Cipriani, Monessen, Pa., quarterback, sent his team directly to the line of scrimmage. Howard ran to the ball, yelling, "Over here, fellows."

Ran For TD
Cipriani also started yelling, shifting backwards as if he were trying to move his team toward the ball. To further confuse matters, end Dan Wooten, Cape May Courthouse, N. J., was lonesome all by himself near the sidelines. He didn't take part in the huddle, a la Bill Carpenter of Army.

Temple players either pointed warningly at lonely Wooten or gaped at what looked like several Lafayette players losing their minds.

While Cipriani was drifting backwards yelling "Over here," he also called a signal. Howard centered diagonally to halfback Charley Bartos of Phillipsburg, N. J., Bartos, behind four blockers, raced 61 yards unmolested past a stunned Temple defense for a touchdown.

"Once In A Lifetime"
"Howard practiced centering diagonally for a week," chuckled McConlogue, 41, who said he pulled the play several times while coaching football at Central Catholic High School in Allentown, Pa., and at Netcong, N. J. Lafayette won its third straight MAC victory after a loss to Dartmouth.

"We hadn't scored in the first half all season," said McConlogue, a Moravian College graduate. "I thought 'The Thing' might do it. I don't think we could do it again. Strictly a once in a lifetime play."

Syracuse Wins In NBA Opener Sunday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Coach Paul Seymour hopes this is the season of reckoning for his Syracuse Nationals in the Eastern Division race of the National Basketball Assn.

The Nats, who finished their two years ago and were runnerup to the Boston Celtics in the 1957-58 campaign, are aiming to dethrone the Celts this season. And they're off and running.

The Detroit Pistons and the Nationals inaugurated the season in a nationally televised game in Syracuse Sunday with the Nats winning 193-94.

Flashing a balanced scoring attack, Syracuse bolted to a 22-point half-time lead. When the Pistons rallied after the intermission, the Nats successfully withstood their belated surge.

contenders with five victories and 500 rating points, will not see conference action this week.
Lewistown is second in the standings but the first place team, Windber, does not have the required five conference games scheduled to be eligible for the title.

Windber has won its only conference game and has 550 rating points based on record and caliber of opposition. Jersey Shore is the third place team with three victories and 500 points.

Of the other contenders, Curwensville, 3-0 and 463 points, entertains Huntingdon this week; Richland Twp., 5-0 and 470 points, plays at Bedford and Indiana, 3-0 and 467 points, goes to Westmont.

NOMINATES 4 BEST HS GRID TEAMS IN PA.

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Who has the best high school football team in the state?

Make your choice and duck the barrage from the critics who have their own choices.

But strong arguments could be offered in favor of four independents: Easton, Central Dauphin, Bradford, Pittsburgh North Catholic. All have logged impressive victories over top calibre competition in their respective areas of the state.

Others By Sections
Other teams, by section, rating mention:

Southeast — Haverford and Ridley Twp. are standouts in the suburban I League; Radnor and Springfield (Motto) appeal the best of the Suburban II teams; Conestoga, Pottstown, Downingtown and Coatesville are all in the Cnes-Mont title scrap. Amherst has a clear hold on the Bux - Mont title, having beaten defending champion Pennridge and dark-horse Central Bucks.

Northeast — Kingston, by beating Swoyersville, 21-7, became a big East Penn Northern Division threat and the only unbeaten, untied team among the leading contenders — West Scranton, Scranton Central, Blakely, Old Forge, Old Forge (beaten by Easton) and Blakely tied each other. Scranton Central spoiled West Scranton's unbeaten season, 13-0, but has lost to non-conference Kingston Catholic (which in turn lost to Old Forge), Mount Carmel, Shamokin, Shenandoah and Cass Twp. — all unbeaten — stand above the Southern Division pack, although Cass is playing a sub-par schedule.

Carlisle in South Penn
South Central-Harrisburg Penn (lost to Central Dauphin) has a perfect record in Central Penn Conference play; Lancaster and York, despite two defeats, remain threats. Carlisle (beaten by Central Dauphin) remains the favorite in the South Penn.

North Central — Unbeaten Lewistown (6-0) has crushed all opposition in the West Penn and Susquehanna Conferences and may be one of the best in the state. Williamsport, with only one defeat, is a leading contender for the Central Penn title. Lewisburg, after a poor start, has come back impressively in the Susquehanna.

Danville, with a loss to Shamokin, is another good Susquehanna Conference team. Jersey Shore, with a loss only to Danville, is highly regarded in both the West Penn and the Susquehanna.

West Central — Windber, playing a tough schedule and operating principally as an independent; once-beaten (Windber) Conemaugh Twp., and unbeaten Indiana and Curwensville are about the best in the West Penn besides Lewistown and Jersey Shore.

Other Favorites
Southwest — Mt. Lebanon is the WPIAL AA title favorite after eliminating defending champion Wilkinsburg but Charleroi (lost to North Catholic), Clairton, Farrell, Johnston, Uniontown and West View are threats. Bradock, Scott High and Waynesburg are leaders for the Class A title.

Northwest — Erie East appears the probable Erie County big seven winner; Corry, Franklin and Warren will probably share the Section II title; St. Mary's has won 27 straight but suffers from the calibre of its competition. However, Sharpville and Grove City of Section III, along with Bradford, look to be about the strongest in the section. Bradford has beaten Erie East, Corry and Warren.

NEWS ROUNDUP BY NBC WINS GOOD NOTICES

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—NBC News corralled five of its wide-ranging correspondents Sunday for an hourlong, interesting session on television about the current sad state of the world.

The correspondents were David Brinkley, working out of Washington; Joseph C. Harsch, covering Western Europe; Irving R. Levine from Moscow; John Chancellor, who has been roving the Middle East; and Cecil Brown from the Far East. Frank McGee moderated the program.

As always has been the case with bull sessions, no unanimous opinions were arrived at. As always, the most dogmatically opinionated man held the floor longest and some of the most trenchant comments were made by those nipping at the heels of the charging bull.

Lack of Leadership
To one viewer, who would not attempt to organize such an affair, the natural beginning of the hourlong discussion came at its very end. Brinkley, whose time was squeezed by much hubbub-hubb from the Far East, finally had a chance at two minutes of saying what American viewers are most interested in hearing.

He raised the big question of what we are supposed to do about it and answered that nobody has yet told the individual American what to do in a variety of situations, that we suffer not from moral flabbiness but from a lack of positive leadership.

Chancellor gave a fine report on the situation in the Middle East. Brown defended Quemoy for 23 minutes over the potshots of his colleagues. It was too long a defense.

Making Of "Regular"
NBC-TV now has the material for a grand hour-length regular television series. All it needs to do is repeat once a week the Fred

Pittsburgh Papers Back Candidates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence, the Democratic candidate for governor, and Congressman Hugh Scott, Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate, have been endorsed by the Pittsburgh Press.

In a Sunday editorial endorsing Lawrence, the Press said the state's financial and unemployment situation "obviously calls for a chief executive at Harrisburg who can furnish the leadership, the know-how and the experience to bring the state back to its rightful place in the industrial world."

The editorial described Scott as a congressman of "long service" and "marked ability."

The Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, which previously had endorsed Lawrence and Scott, published an editorial Sunday in support of John Walker, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, and Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for re-election as state secretary of internal affairs.

The Press and Sun-Telegraph classify themselves as politically independent newspapers.
